

HARVARD MAN, LEADER OF INSURRECTOS, SLAIN

Hit by Stray Bullet.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., April 17.—The Mexican Federals were repulsed by the insurrectos at Agua Prieta today and fled to the foothills.

The insurgents captured one night firing gun and one field piece which were deserted by the regulars in their flight. These guns had been pushed forward near the Agaña Prieta line for the bombardment of the town.

One American soldier was wounded by flying bullets as he threw light here at noon that General Matens will feel much about the Chinese Indians and arrived in Agaña Prieta and that Mexico had probably taken charge of the situation.

District Attorney Joseph C. Palmer and Assistant District Attorney Michael J. Levey, who are following the Grand Jury's investigation of the Bremer kidnapping case, here it was said about the coincidence on possible charges in the charge that that Grand Jury has been considering.

In this connection the following from today's Boston News Bureau sheets

Three hundred United States soldiers under Colonel Shanks patrolled the border during the battle.

They picked crops of mushrooms and were lying behind a breakfast, picking off the Federal armymen.

Two rapid-fire guns of the Federal were moved inside the settlement's fortifications as they took their places in the battery.

At a small detachment making up the rear guard of the insurgent forces near Toluca, Tlaxcala, those husband and sons were shot to Mexican soldiers for aiding the rebel cause. The sacrifice nearly all her fortune equipping insurgent soldiers.

Twenty-one are reported to have been killed and many more wounded. The Red Cross here sent wagons and field men to bring the wounded into Douglas for treatment.

TAKEN TO COURT THIS MINISTER

TAKEN TO COURT THIS MORNING

The refusal of Kenneth J. McKean, a real estate owner of Baugus, to allow his neighbors to take a short cut across his property was the subject of a hearing before Justice Nathanial Thayer.

"I am not going to lend any money to any preacher," said the Rev. Dr. Elliot Brownson in his maiden appearance at district court yesterday morning.

on the hike to the Superior Court, Salem today with a petition. The signers, who used to be on the best of terms with McKeen before the neighborhood row broke out, ask an injunction restraining McKeen from keeping them off his lot.

As a result of the success of a series of rummage sales, dances and socials, the McKee family is now planning a fundraising mission to fight McKean. The family said McKee sits in a chair, keeping his hands clasped in front of him and groans their names. One allegation is that McKean groans the glassy eyes as they stare.

LINER BRINGS FOUR FLOPERS

A pretty measure with a double-employment feature came to light today when the immigration authorities, acting on information that a ship was a colporteur, detained four German musicians—two couples, young and very much in love. The quartette had run away from their homes in Leipzig, Germany, because they wanted to get married more quickly than the laws of the Kaiser permitted.

The couples were: August Hubert, twenty-four years old, pianist, and his sweet heart, Rosa Schone, twenty-three years old, violinist; and Kurt Redert, twenty-three years old, violinist, and his sweet heart, Marie, twenty-two years old, pianist. They arrived on the Red Star liner Monmouth to-day. A cable from Altona, Germany, a music teacher of Leipzig, preceded them.

None of the four denied the charge, and all said their desire was to be married. They had money and wanted to live in America. Just now they are passing a concert tour which they hope to do before a little before they get married.

Anyhow, the four told the board of immigration that they were going to get married in America, and were willing to wait for the law. They were not to be sent back.

An attempt was made to reach the German consul in Boston this afternoon for the purpose of getting his sanction to the double marriage for the couples from "the Kaiser."

Governor Foss Price Drops LOSING WEIGHT FOR LOBSTERS

Close personal friends of Governor Foss are beginning to joke with him over the fact that he is losing weight since he assumed office. Some of them say he has dropped fifteen pounds since his inauguration. The Governor admits he has lost weight, but he is not worried. He is losing weight because he is eating less. He is eating less because he is not eating as much of the lobster as he used to. He is not eating as much of the lobster because he is not eating as much of the lobster as he used to. WILL OUT SUCCEED OLIN

While care is being taken to avoid anything that will excite the public mind, the Secretary of State Olin has been laid to rest, a lively campaign is already under way for his place. The Legislature will choose some one to fill the office until next January. A new official will be chosen by the voters next fall, and the choice of the Legislature for the unexpired term will probably have the most track to the place.

Representative Russell A. Wood of Cambridge has been in the field for several weeks as a candidate for the Republican nomination for this place next fall. He said today that he will seek the Legislature election in the place. He realizes, however, that the Republican machine will have more of a whip-saw with the Legislature than it will with the people, and he is anxious to see that if he is elected he will be the only one to be elected by the people.

Senator Daniel D. Deane of Worcester announced his candidacy today. He is a U. S. A. veteran. He was prominently mentioned for Sergeant Major of the Legislature when Captain Remondino resigned.

A strong supporter of Representative Wood is J. J. Lantry, editor and publisher of the Independent. Lantry was elected Olin's Secretary. He is the candidate of the Independent for the Legislature. He has been a candidate for the Legislature when the Legislature elected Elmer A. Brown, Governor of the State.

ONE-HALF BOTTLE OF THE GREAT KIDNEY REMEDY ACCOMPLISHES WONDERS

When I sent for a sample bottle of Swamp-Root, I had to wait every two or three hours through the day and night. I passed but a very small quantity, but with a swelling and straining at the end of each passage. Before I received sample by mail, I went to our best doctor (and he is second to none in this vicinity) and told him how I was. He put me up a bottle of medicine. I was about a week taking the medicine, but was no better than when I began. I then sent for a sample bottle, and before I got through with it, I felt a change. The swelling sensation did not bother me any more. I was able to go to my work, and I was able to do my duty. I would not have believed such a small quantity would have done so much. But, before it was over, I learned that our doctor kept Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and so got a large bottle for one dollar, but actually worth one hundred dollars. I only took one large tablespoonful three times a day, and before I had taken one-half bottle, I was all right and have been since. Gratefully yours,

DIRECT ELECTION BILL IN SENATE

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Two important pieces of legislation, the direct election of Senators and campaign publicity bill, were ready for the Senate when it met today in session to-day.

The Senate committee on the Judiciary, which had been working on the bill since it was introduced in the House, reported it favorably to the Senate today.

The bill, which was introduced by Senator Charles McNary of Oregon, provides for the direct election of Senators by the people of each State.

The bill also provides for the establishment of a Federal Bureau of Investigation to investigate and report on the activities of the various political parties and organizations.

The bill was introduced in the House by Representative Charles McNary of Oregon, and it was passed by the House on April 12.

The bill was then sent to the Senate, where it was introduced by Senator Charles McNary of Oregon, and it was passed by the Senate on April 17.

The bill is now being considered by the Senate, and it is expected that it will be passed by the Senate in the near future.

The bill is a very important piece of legislation, and it is expected that it will have a great effect on the future of the United States.

DR. ELLIOTT TELLS SECRETS OF AGE

Give your mind exercise as well as your body. Regularly, in moderation, take a full allowance of sleep. Avoid indigestion in food, and the habitual use of any drug whatever, except only of alcohol, but of tobacco, tea and coffee.

These are the rules Dr. Charles W. Elliott has for the man who would live long and happy, according to the New York World. Dr. Elliott is one of the leading men in the United States, although he is now retired from the presidency of Harvard University.

At 7:30 on the morning of March 20, last, seventy-seven Dr. Elliott, accompanied by Mrs. Elliott, was making his first visit to the hospital. How many men would dream of leaving their seventy-seventh year untroubled on a visit to the hospital?

Simply it may be in possession of the secret of perpetual youth, it is the former president of Harvard.

The personal ingredients in his prescription for longevity have already been summarized. To this summary may be added a little explanatory comment as given by Dr. Elliott himself.

"I am not one of those who say, 'I believe that it is necessary to abstain wholly from the use of alcohol, tobacco, tea, coffee or other stimulants. On the contrary, I feel that there are times when a stimulant used in moderation is beneficial. What I am opposed to is the habit of using stimulants every day in moderation. The man, for instance, who is accustomed to take every day as much as a single glass of whiskey, is doing himself no harm that is permanent."

Avoid Overexercise.
As to exercise, prevent the opposite course should be followed. Stimulants, if used at all, should be used only on occasional occasions. Exercise should be taken regularly, though always in moderation. One of the chief objectives I have in the competitive games so popular now, especially, is to prevent the player from taking too much exercise. If he does, it will lead to over-exercise, the player will be exhausted, and he will be unable to do his duty. I am not one of those who say, 'I believe that it is necessary to abstain wholly from the use of alcohol, tobacco, tea, coffee or other stimulants. On the contrary, I feel that there are times when a stimulant used in moderation is beneficial. What I am opposed to is the habit of using stimulants every day in moderation. The man, for instance, who is accustomed to take every day as much as a single glass of whiskey, is doing himself no harm that is permanent."

Students Recover Sign from Thieves
About 2:15 p. m. on Sunday two young men, Edward Adams, Boston University law student, and William Adams, Boston University law student, were walking on the streets of Boston. They were carrying a sign which they had made for the purpose of raising money for the students of the law school.

The sign was a large one, and it was made of cardboard. It was painted with the words "STUDENTS RECOVER SIGN FROM THIEVES" in large, bold letters. The sign was carried by the two young men, and it was seen by many people as they walked down the street.
